

6:53 AM

MerryWash

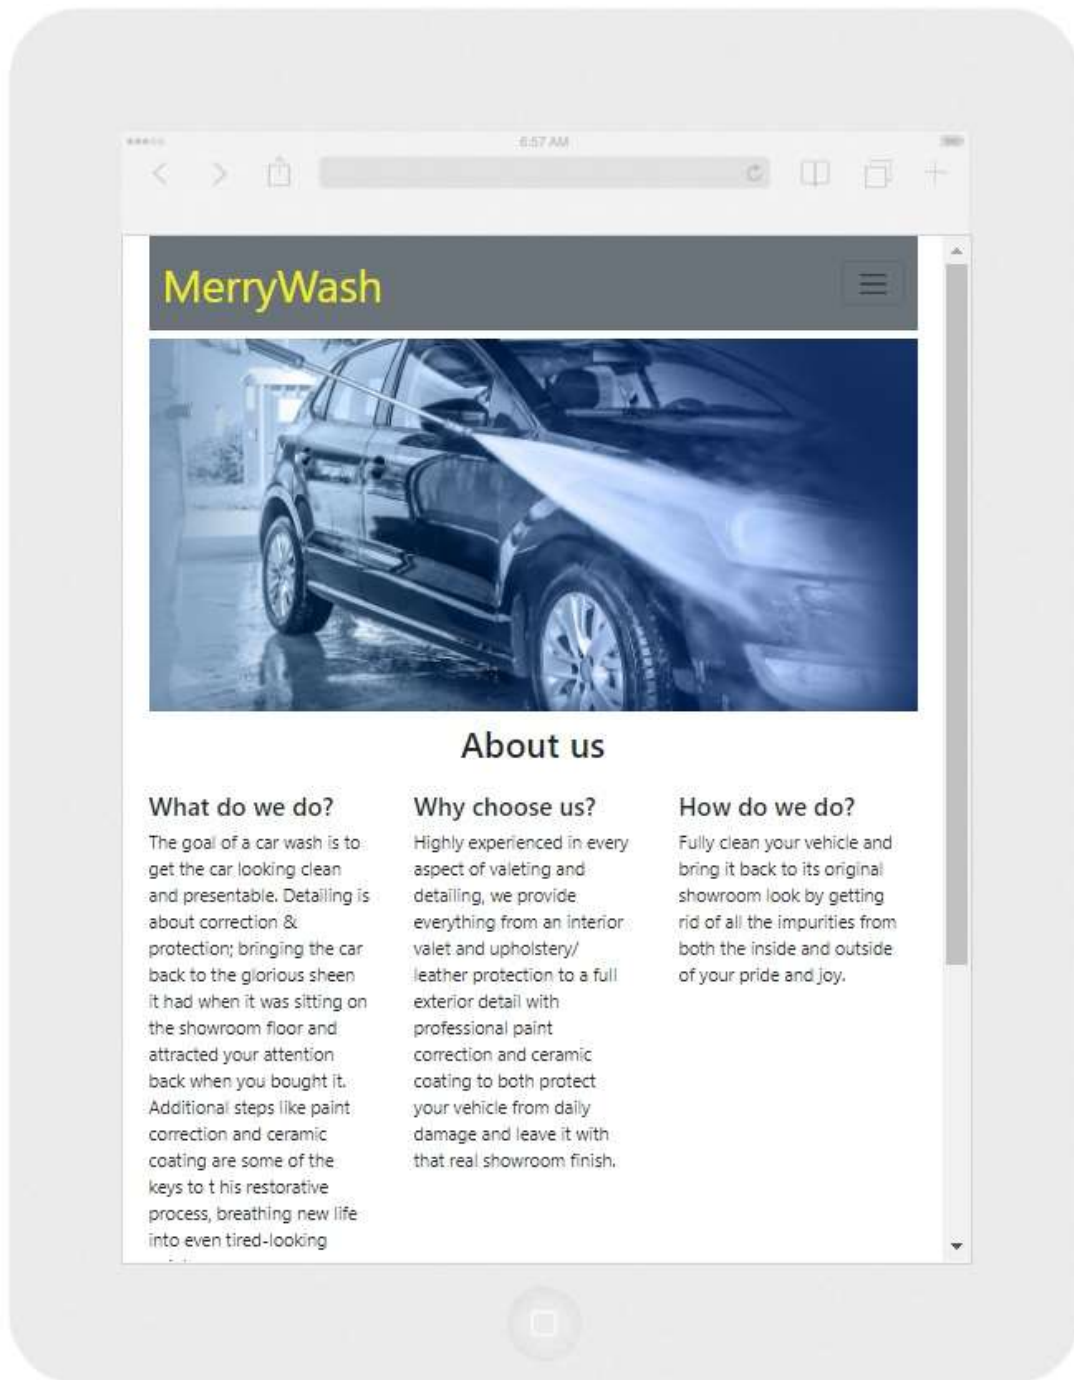

About us

What do we do?

The goal of a car wash is to get the car looking clean and presentable. Detailing is about correction & protection; bringing the car back to the glorious sheen it had when it was sitting on the showroom floor and attracted your attention back when you bought it. Additional steps like paint correction and ceramic coating are some of the keys to this restorative process, breathing new life into even tired-looking paint.

ipad portrait - width: 768px